ORDER

AND NOW, this 12th day of April, 2023, upon consideration of Plaintiff Jimmy Lee Wilson, Sr.'s Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (ECF No. 3), his Prisoner Trust Fund Account Statement (ECF No. 7), and his pro se Complaint (ECF Nos. 1, 2), it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. Plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

2. Jimmy Lee Wilson, Sr., #022319, shall pay the full filing fee of $350 in installments, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b), regardless of the outcome of this case. The Court directs the Warden of Bucks County Correctional Facility or other appropriate official to assess an initial filing fee of 20% of the greater of (a) the average monthly deposits to Wilson's inmate account; or (b) the average monthly balance in Wilson's inmate account for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of this case. The Warden or other appropriate official shall calculate, collect, and forward the initial payment assessed pursuant to this Order to the Court with a reference to the docket number for this case. In each succeeding month when the amount in Wilson's inmate trust fund account exceeds $10.00, the Warden or other appropriate official shall forward payments to the Clerk of Court equaling 20% of the preceding month's income credited to Wilson's inmate account until the fees are paid. Each payment shall refer to the docket number for this case.

3. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Order to the Warden of Bucks County Correctional Facility.

4. The Complaint is DEEMED filed.

5. For the reasons set forth in the Court's Memorandum, Wilson's claims against Bucks County Correctional Facility are DISMISSED, with prejudice, for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii).

6. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to terminate Bucks County Correctional Facility as a Defendant in this case.

7. For the reasons set forth in the Court's Memorandum, Wilson's claims against Warden Matelis, Deputy Warden Reed, and Captain Nottingham are DISMISSED, without prejudice, for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii).

8. Wilson may file an amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Any amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the basis for Wilson's claims against each defendant. The amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his amended complaint, Wilson should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial Complaint as explained in the Court's Memorandum. Wilson may not reassert a claim that has already been dismissed with prejudice. Upon the filing of an amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

9. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Wilson a blank copy of the Court’s form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Wilson may use this form to file his amended complaint if he chooses to do so.¹

10. If Wilson does not wish to amend his Complaint and instead intends to stand on his Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled “Notice to Stand on Complaint,” and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) (“If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate.” (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding “that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs’ decision not to replead those claims” when the district court “expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims”).

11. If Wilson fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Wilson intends to stand on his Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.² See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff’s intent to stand on his complaint may be
